

The San Diego Chapter of ARMA Presents
A TOUR OF THE MUSEUM OF MAKING MUSIC
January 27, 2010

Guest Speaker: Mr. Tony Arambarri, NAMM Archivist, Resource Center Manager
 NAMM Foundation (formerly the National Association of Music Merchants)
 The International Music Products Association

The NAMM Resource Center was established in 1946 and provides its members, the media, academic researchers, and the general public with access to historical data. The Historical collections are categorized into five main subjects such as NAMM history, Manufacturer History, Retail History, Music History (especially as it pertains to instrument and product innovations), and Legacy Collections (oral interviews with prominent people in the music profession).

The program consists of a 15-20 minute special presentation by Tony Arambarri, NAMM, Archivist on the history and preservation of NAMM materials contained within the NAMM Resource Center, Archives, Oral History Program and associated holdings. Then there will be a 1 hour 15 minute tour of the Museum of Making Music. [See map on reverse]
